

New Softtext

Dead Soft Lead Strip

A New soft, supple lead strip for the fussy lead connoisseur.

Introducing a new dead soft professional standard lead overlay for creating overlay stained glass windows. It's soft, it bends real easy, and its called SOFTEXT. Every reel of this super product starts life as a large block of lead. After melting the block to a desired temperature, we select other additional metals to create the super soft texture that this excellent product demands. Softtext comes boxed in fives and is available in 3mm, 4mm, 6mm, 9mm and 12mm and is 60mtrs in length. Any window leader who loves working with a dead soft high quality product will surely love softtext. It costs no more than the regular lead profiles, it has a high power sticking adhesive and it's kind on the hands.
